From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Thanks to Damariz Perez, Angel Bradford and Olga Convery for covering the office while Debbie Carroll, our secretary, is recovering from her hip replacement surgery.

Please keep Debbie in your prayers. Also, please be tolerant of any problems that might arise in the rectory office due to Debbie's absence.

This week, I'll participate in the birthday celebrations of 90, 60, 87 and 18 years! My mother celebrated her 87th on Thursday, a high school classmate's mother was 90 on Sunday, a friend from a previous parish was 60 and a young Mexican woman in our parish is celebrating her 18th birthday.

Human life is wonderful and the different ages of our lives have different tasks and different struggles. Each has its own joys and hopes, griefs and anxieties. Many blessings for all those who are celebrating their birthdays this month. May they rejoice in the good things that they have in life and share their burdens with those who will help to carry them.

Thanks to Gladys Tapia for organizing the activities for the youth and children during the summer time. They will learn skills, such as sewing, that will help them to be good homemakers and family members.

Thanks to Kyree Douglas and Keith Dixon, two boys from the neighborhood who are working on our flower gardens. They are removing the weeds, planting new flowers and spreading the compost that we got from the Children's Garden. Throughout the summer, they will continue to keep our flower beds beautiful.

I hope that everyone enjoys our property. The trees, flowers, shrubs and grass all contribute to making the neighborhood a pleasant place to visit.

Thanks to Father Peter DiTomaso for coming last week to share with us his message about the missions. His order, the Missionaries of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, has missions in Nigeria, India and Argentina. May they be rewarded for all of their labors.

We are very close to reaching our goal for the House of Charity. If anyone would like to make a donation to help us to go over the top, please let me know right away!

Peace,
Fr. Hallahan

Stewardship Reflection

“Indeed, religion with contentment is a great gain. For we brought nothing into the world, just as we shall not be able to take anything out it.” (I Timothy 6:6-7)

Stewards hear the word and understand it. They find contentment by living Stewardship as a way of life. They have learned to give of their time, talent and treasure without looking for what they will get in return.
