New Parish Mission Statement

As a sacrifice of praise the people of St. Bartholomew and St. Joan of Arc welcome people of every race, language and way of life around the table of our Lord Jesus Christ in an American African/Hispanic expression of Roman Catholic worship. Sharing our time, talent and treasure in acts of justice, we proclaim the "Gospel of Life" with and for the people of Camden.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastor's Reflection for Fathers Day/Dia des Padres

I am thinking of my daddy Joe -my grandfather. He was a man who prayed. He was a man who prayed for me and he was a man who carried a switch blade. He fought in the First World War and suffered injuries. Because of those injuries he and his wife adopted my mother who was a young child needing adoption. What I want to say to my brothers and fathers is that in addition to everything else you are and you do, be men who pray. Let your children see you at prayer and sometime soon, bring them together and bless them. If you don't know how, ask someone does. My job as a 'Father' is to pray for you all. It is a job precious to me and it is important to my sense of spiritual fatherhood. "I pray for you. You pray for me. We are all a part of God's family."

Blessed Fathers Day.

Fr. Gerard

A Family Perspective

In today's gospel Jesus asked "Who do people say I am?" We are often misunderstood. And at times we can even misrepresent ourselves and get away with being who we aren't. In our family we are known, accepted and loved for who we really are. Today we honor dads for who they really are in our lives.

Stewardship Reflection

Stewardship Freedom

"For you were called for freedom, brothers. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love." (Galatians 5;13)

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to "live the good life." But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free and called us to stewardship so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God's work here on earth.
